

WORKSHOP ON
CLIENT COUNSELLING AND ARGUMENTATIVE SKILLS:
AN ART
28th March 2019

Gitarattan International Business School organised a PDW on “Client Counselling and Argumentative Skills” on 26th March, 2019 to develop client counselling and argumentative skills of the law students. The Workshop was attended by BALLB and BALLB Semester IV Students. The guest speaker for the session was Advocate M K Dhingra, Legal Adviser, Retainer-Legal Services and Guest Faculty in Law and Management.

He started the session with discussion on various components of legal system such as judges, lawyers, litigants and paralegal. He also discussed about Advocates Act, 1961. He said that to be a good lawyer one should have confidence and Knowledge. He also discussed about lawyer and client relationship. Further, he explained the students about counselling. He said that counselling is an ability to interview, counsel and support the client through his legal issues and listen & understand the facts of the case. The speaker further apprised the students about argument that to give reasons in support of the case and stating evidence is the base of argument. He further, explained that argumentation involves admission and denial of documentation, framing of issues, examination of witnesses etc. He said that argument is a process and argumentation is a process which has to be done step by step with the help of evidence. The speaker concluded the session with his words that “YOU ARE WHAT YOU BELIEVE”.

To sum up, it was a very interactive and knowledgeable session for the law students.

Prepared by: Chhavi Gupta, Assistant Professor, GIBS