

THE GIBS TALKS:SEASON 2- “Post Pandemic Market Mandate” “EPISODE 2: “ Covid: Go with or Be the Change” 20th SEPTEMBER, 2020

The Institute organized episode 2 of “THE GIBS TALKS: SEASON 2.” on 20th September, 2020. Under main theme of the series “Post Pandemic Market Mandate”, Episode 2 was organized on Covid: Go with or Be the Change. The session was addressed by Mr. Kenneth Jeyseelan, Associate Vice President, HR, TCS.

Mr. Kenneth thrusted on “learning in a Smarter Way” in pandemic situation and “Be the change” to take challenges. He further expounded that challenges can only be taken when you are “Innofie” which means we need innovation. He highlighted that innovation and learning goes hand in hand and in pandemic situation we have to first unlearn and then create future.

Mr. Kenneth suggested participants to think on one question that” Are we ready to unlearn things”. He further supported that learn from history and create your own future.He addressed youth as “experienced fresher”. He explained that by experienced fresher he means that while studying they can become entrepreneurs if they are innovative and create true value.

Answering the questions of participants he left the audience with leading thoughts. He said consider that if you are Innofie what happens? Hedescribed that innofie will have societal impacts, radical innovations and new technology platforms. One can rule the world being innofie.

The event saw 1147 registrations, a mix blend of academicians, corporate professionals and students.

GIBSfavorably thank Mr. Kenneth Jeyseelan, AVP-HR, TCSfor accepting out the invitation and taking out precious time to address the Participants.

Prepared By: Dr. Uma Gulati, Professor, giBS