

JURIST DAY ON

“HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS OF CHILDREN & SPECIAL ENACTMENTS”

23rd OCTOBER, 2020

Center for Legal Studies, Gitarattan International Business School organized Jurist Day on 23rd October, 2020. The guest speaker for the session was Prof. (Dr.) Devinder Singh, Department of Laws, Punjab University, Chandigarh. The theme of this event was “Human Rights Violations of Children & special Enactment.”

The objective behind this event was to sensitize students about developing violations of Children’s Rights, analyze the effectiveness of present legislations and elucidate the need for new legislations in new areas of violations.

The speaker started his session by shooting up few questions like, “Whose responsibility is it to ensure the safe, protective and caring environment that every child deserves?”, and helped the students to interpret those questions from different angle. The session was very interesting as he dealt with many topics starting from the discussion of present legislations on child rights up to need for new legislations. He explained the importance of effective implementation of laws.

This helped the students to understand the importance of the human rights of children and also the current requirements of Law. The session was very interesting as he addressed all the queries of students by giving certain examples from his own experience.
