The guest speaker for the session was Ms. Anupama Deshmukh – Hospitality Consultant and Corporate Trainer .

The theme of the event was - “Effective communication skills” Communication is an essential part of every individual. The most important skill for a young lawyer to develop is effective communication. From the initial job interview to the courtroom or conference room, almost everything an associate does, involves some form of communication. Communication is the lifeblood of any relationship: personal, professional or a temporary transaction among individuals. It plays an important role in the business world whether it’s a customer or a Client .The concept of effective communication focuses on:, Understanding the roles of legislatures, agencies, and courts, Recognizing and using basic legal vocabulary in context, Reading a variety of legal documents efficiently and effectively, Writing law-related reports and correspondence, reading and understanding the function of primary sources of law, including statutes, regulations, and cases.

The speaker started her session by focusing on professional etiquettes, handling team and negotiation and also focused on how to develop confidence in oneself as per the professional requirement. She also highlighted on emotional behavior and adequate body language.

The session was very exciting as she addressed all the queries of students by giving certain examples from her own experience &activities.
