

PD WORKSHOP ON
“LEGAL PROFESSION & PUBLIC SPEAKING SKILLS”
4th September, 2020

Center for Legal Studies, Gitarattan International Business School organized a PD Workshop on 4th September, 2020. The guest speaker for the session was Mr. Amar Vivek, Advocate Supreme Court & High Court Punjab & Haryana. The theme of this event was “Legal Profession & Public Speaking Skills”

The objective behind this event was to help the students to understand importance of acquiring Public Speaking skills and analyze the new age challenges in relation to Public Speaking as a future Legal Professional.

The speaker started his session by shooting up few questions and helped the students to interpret those questions in different angle. The session was very interesting as he dealt with many topics right from how to place your arguments before the court. He explained importance of public speaking skills for becoming a good lawyer.

In light of the experience gained through Court practice he had given an insight to the students with respect to developing the ability to convey ideas with confidence and clarity which is essential for articulating their points in the court of law.

This helped the students to understand the importance of Public Speaking in Legal Profession. The session was very interesting as he addressed all the queries of students by giving certain examples from his own experience during his initial court practice.
