

PD WORKSHOP ON

“LEGAL CAREER COUNSELING & PROFESSIONAL NEED”

14th April, 2021

Center for Legal Studies, Gitarattan International Business School organized PD Workshop on 14th April, 2021. The Guest Speaker for the session was Mr. Amar Vivek, Advocate Supreme Court & High Court Punjab & Haryana. The theme of the workshop was “Legal Career Counseling & Professional Need”

The objective of the workshop was to inform students about the current trends and developments, available streams and factors that play a major role when it comes to career decision making in legal field. The main aim was to help the students make the right career decision keeping in view their strength and to acquaint them with the various challenges that they might face at work place.

The speaker began the session by asking some thought provoking questions on recent judgments of Supreme Court and helped the students to interpret those judgments from a different vantage point. The session made the students aware of many crucial and ground breaking latest Supreme Court Judgments as well as contemporary issues prevailing in India. He also shared his email id with students and urged them to write and share articles on burning issues

The Speaker shared his own experiences and few anecdotes which made the students think out of the box and helped to boost their confidence. The session came to an end by vote of thanks.
