

THE GIBS TALK: SEASON 3 EPISODE 2 STAYING RELEVANT FOR JOB MARKET 30TH MAY, 2021

GIBS organized webinar on 30th May, 2021 as the part of GIBS TALK Season 3 on the theme ‘Staying relevant for the Job Market’. Gitarattan International Business School has organized earlier two earlier ‘GIBS Talk series’ on the themes, ‘Roadmap to Higher education’ and ‘Post Pandemic Market Mandate’ respectively in series 1 and 2. In season 3 and episode 2 Dr. Vijay Chaudhry Executive Vice President and Business Head (Global Operation) Bry- Air (Asia) Private Limited took a session to enlighten the participants.

Dr. Chaudhry started the session with the word ‘Youngistaan’ dedicating it to youthful population of India. He talked about the current pandemic circumstances and resultant situation in business environment. He stressed that due to Covid, many companies are retrenching their employees and taking other measures to remain afloat in the market. At the same time, there is a need to change the mindset and attitude of modern -day youth. He also answered on ‘how to bring the change’. i.e. by challenging yourself. This would result in making the youth employment ready.

Dr. Chaudhry while summarising his deliberation underlined the need of first understanding and learning Self - Control and then adding new skill sets as the market is rapidly changing and waiting for the youngsters to capture on new opportunities.

At GIBS we are highly indebted to Dr. Vijay Chaudhry for graciously enlightening webinar participants with his motivational and insightful words. His powerful deliberations will go a long way in showing a path to our students and faculty members.

Prepared by: Mr Rahul Dandotiya, Assistant Professor, giBS