

Personality Development Workshop

Analytical and Evaluative Skills Required to Choose the Most Suitable Information Source

10 September 2021

Gitarattan International Business School organized a Personality Development Workshop entitled ‘Analytical and Evaluative Skills Required to Choose the Most Suitable Information Source’ on 10th September 2021. The workshop was conducted for BA LLB and BBA LLB students of 3rd semester. The main objective of this workshop was to make the students learn analytical and evaluative skills required to identify the best information sources. The information sources assist in legal research. Prospective Lawyers, Judges, Researchers & Academicians pursue legal research with various aims.

The theme was well presented and explained by Dr. J. S. Mann, Associate Professor, National Law University, Delhi. He informed the audience about the kind of information sources the student can access to enhance their knowledge. Further, Dr. Mann guided the students about the precautions that the students should take while choosing the information sources and about the parameters of evaluating the information sources. Students raised their queries during the session. It was indeed an interactive and interesting session.
