

Aalekhya 2021- 1stAnnual Art and Photography Exhibition

22nd-23rd November 2021

Expressions-The Fine Arts Society and Frames- The Photography Club of Gitarattan International Business School organized “Aalekhya 2021”-1stAnnual Art and Photography Exhibition on 22nd& 23rd November 2021. The Theme of the event was “The World Through My Eyes”

The exhibition aimed to provide a platform to budding artists where they can display their art works and share it to the world. Another objective of conducting workshops is to enhance the art acumen of aspiring artists. There were 45 entries from various academies and institutions.

The exhibition was inaugurated by Guest of Honor, Mr. Raghuvir Shah, Director of Raghuvansham School of Arts; Shri Anirudh Jindal, The Vice Chairman GIBS, Dr. Ashminder Singh Bahal, Director GIBS, Ms Prachi Jindal, Dean Academics GIBS graced the occasion.

Day one was full of creativity and exuberance. From the intricate artwork to the truthful photographs, each corner of exhibiton was infused with gamut of human emotions . Each work; be it beautiful lanscape painted by Vrinda or the mother and son’s photograph clicked by Kushagre, spoke a thousand words. The verisimilitude of artwork left the viewers mesmerized. On the other hand photographs that tried to capture life in mundane moments left a profound impact on the spectators.

Free workshops in art and photography were also conducted on day one by Mr. Raghuvir Shah. During the photography workshop Sir taught the students the secret to take amazing photographs through the DSLR camera. Students gained clarity on what the Aperture is and how it is used, they also learnt about shutter speed and basic composition tricks.

During the art workshop, Mr. Shah gave everyone hands on experience in fashion illustrations wherein students were equipped with the knowledge and techniques of how to draw the body elements and different fashion poses. Basic difference between female, male and children figures and how to draw garments on the posing figures were also taught to them.

The exhibition remained open on day two for everyone and was followed by valedictory ceremony. Guest of Honor, Mr. Raghuvir Shah addressed the gathering and provided his valuable insights on the exhibition and the creative work done by the participants. The award for best entry in art work was bagged by Mihika Kashyap, Amity University and runner up for this category was Anushka Kishwar, GIBS. The award for best entry in photography work was won by Kushagre Baweja, GIBS and runner up for this category was Muskan Alam, GIBS. The first best entry received a cash prize of Rs. 1000 with a Certificate of Merit and the second best entry received a cash prize of Rs. 500 with a Certificate of Merit.

The event was concluded by the vote of thanks by Dr Sneha Chaudhry.

Prepared by: Monika Gulia, Assistant Professor, GIBS.