

ALUMNI LECTURE SERIES

23rd APRIL, 2022

On April 23, 2022, Gitarattan International Business School hosted an Alumni Lecture Series (ALS) for all the Management Programme students. The alumni shared their experiences of transformation; the journey from college to corporate. They discussed a variety of issues, including Industry and Corporate expectations, professional challenges and identifying Market Gaps.

Ms. Tanya Singh, who earned her MBA (International Business) degree in 2019, was the first speaker of the day. Ms. Tanya is a Customer Care Executive for HDFC Bank. She emphasized the necessity of appreciating oneself and recognizing one's abilities in order to choose the correct job and build a strong career foundation. She also engaged the pupils in a game to boost the team spirit. Ms. Shikha Sharma, who also completed her MBA (International Business) in 2019, was the second speaker. She is a Senior Research Associate in Business Research at Unimrkt Research. She discussed business culture and the necessity of teamwork at the workplace. She opined that punctuality, professionalism, and proper communication are the most important requirements in the business sector. Both speakers briefed the students about market expectations for the future, the challenges one has to encounter while advancing in the careers. The alumni also answered various queries of the students.

Ms. Tanya Singh and Ms. Shikha Sharma were presented with a memento as a token of appreciation by Dr. H. Sharma, Director, GIBS.
