

Constitution Day

On

26th November, 2022

Gitarattan International Business School organized Panel Discussion on the occasion of Constitution Day on 26th November, 2022. Constitution Day also known as 'Samvidhan Divas', is celebrated in our country on 26th November every year to commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India. On 26th November 1949, the Constituent Assembly of India adopted the Constitution of India, which came into effect from 26th January 1950. The Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment on 19th November 2015 notified the decision of Government of India to celebrate the 26th day of November every year as 'Constitution Day' to promote Constitution values among citizens.

National constitution day is celebrated to inculcate and honor the values and features of the constitution across schools. This day is being celebrated in many colleges and in various government institutions. The constitution of India is grounded on the values of liberty equality and fraternity. In fact, this constitution of India is an amalgamation of various best and top constitutions around the world like the French constitution, the American constitution, and also the Russian constitution. The concept of equality, liberty, and fraternity was taken from the constitution of France, the concept of the five-year plan was taken from the Russian constitution, while the concept of the independent functioning of the Judiciary was taken from the constitution of Japan. Indian Constitution is held to be one of the biggest constitutions existing in the world and also one of the best constitutions on this entire planet.

The key speaker of the Panel Discussion was Sh. Surajit Dey, Registrar, NHRC and Ms. Binu Tamta, Senior Advocate, Hon'ble Supreme Court of India. The event started with lamp lighting, followed by inaugural address by Sh. Surajit Dey. Sh. Surajit Dey discussed about the purpose of the Constitution, how it binds the people of India with the largest democracy and the system of governance is also provided by the Constitution. The address was followed by the question and answer round with the students. Adv. Ms. Binu Tamta discussed how the leaders and the founding fathers spent the good deed of their time and energy to shape the Supreme Alex which introduced an organic structure to guide future destination of the country by democratic setup to uphold the rule of law and how we should be grateful to them and further discussed the important aspects of the Constitution. The Poster making competition and slogan writing competition were held after Inaugural session. The event concluded with the Vote of thanks which was given by Prof.(Dr.) P.M. Johri in the Inaugural session and Dr. Sanjay Dubey in the Valedictory session.
