

Case study shows practicing decentralization and participative management in the institute. (Cultural committee activities):

- The “Dean Academic & Corporate affairs” forms various committees and one faculty coordinator for each club. All other positions owned by the students only like president, vice president and etc. Decentralization and Participative Management through Cultural, Clubs & Societies Committee activities: The cultural committee organizes various competitions and events throughout the year for encouraging students to display their talents.
- Students are also involved in planning and execution of the various programmes. Students holding position prepares the schedule of the events and organize various activities and competitions throughout academic session. The responsibilities of the organizing various events are shared by all the members. Other teaching and non-teaching members are involved in the evaluation of the competitions.
- The Club President and Vice President guide the new entrants. The student choreographers are encouraged to guide the students for annual events and intercollegiate competitions. In the college students perform all the duties such as anchoring, volunteering, managing and other required skills as per the event. Students who are interested in leadership are encouraged to work as contingent leaders for handling intercollegiate events and other.
- For organizing Annual events and Zenith, creative ideas were contributed by young for the planning and executing the events. Promotion team of students gathers participants and sponsors for the events. Teachers are involved in discipline duties and planning of the schedule of the events. In college Annual Day the teaching and non-teaching staff members perform and showcase their talents. The cultural committee display team spirit in organizing various events. IIPC: Industry Institute Partnership Cell

To illustrate the functioning of decentralization, we can examine the case of the Placement Department at Gitarattan International Business School. In June 2019, Ms. Prachi Jindal assumed the role of Dean Corporate Affairs and took charge of leading the Placement Cell within the institute. Supporting her in this role are the Placement Officer and three Assistant Placement Coordinators.

Typically, both faculty members and students team called PAT- Placement Assistant Team are involved in overseeing placement activities. The Industry Institute Partnership Cell (IIPC) operates under the competent supervision and guidance of the Dean Corporate Affairs. While the Dean provides overarching direction, the day-to-day operations of the Placement Cell are executed in collaboration between students and faculty members, ensuring a decentralized approach to managing placement-related tasks.
