

REPUBLIC DAY CELEBRATION

25th January, 2024 Thursday

Gitarattan International Business School joyously celebrated the 75th Republic Day on January 25, 2024, with grandeur and enthusiasm in the institute's premises. The event, meticulously overseen by Ms. Prachi Jindal, the Dean of Academic Affairs, featured elaborate decorations crafted by the Expressions Club, led by Ms. Smiti. Republic Day celebration provided a platform for students to exhibit their skills through captivating performances, including singing, quizzes, and dance performances.

The celebration started with a warm welcome for Shri, the Vice Chairman of Gitarattan International Business School. Shri Anirudh Jindal unflurred the National Flag, accompanied by the National Anthem. He extended heartfelt Republic Day greetings to students, staff, and faculty members. In his address, he emphasized the significance of freedom, encouraged dedication to hard work and study, and commended the collective efforts of the GIBS community.

The event was followed by the National Voters Days Pledge and Viksit Bharat Pledge by the NSS students' coordinators under the guidance of Ms. Muskan Grover. The pledge was taken by all staff members and students.

Under the guidance of Dr. Dipti Jain, the Mudra Dance Society of GIBS delivered a captivating group dance performance on a Patriotic Mashup. Additionally, the society showcased patriotic songs along with the remarkable band performance. The quiz was conducted by the Abhinay Club and Heritage Club, led by Ms. Ramandeep Kaur and Ms. Ravleen Kaur. The event showcased the artistic skills of the students through enacting famous scene and lines of National leaders and the audience were asked to guess the name of the national leader. The Frames Photography Club of GIBS, under the coordination of Ms. Himani Gupta, captured the entire event.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks from student anchors, balloon release by hon'able Vice Chairman and with the arrangement of high tea for all the attendees.
