

PRELUDE- THE ORIENTATION PROGRAMME OF CENTRE FOR MANAGEMENT STUDIES

1st AUGUST 2024

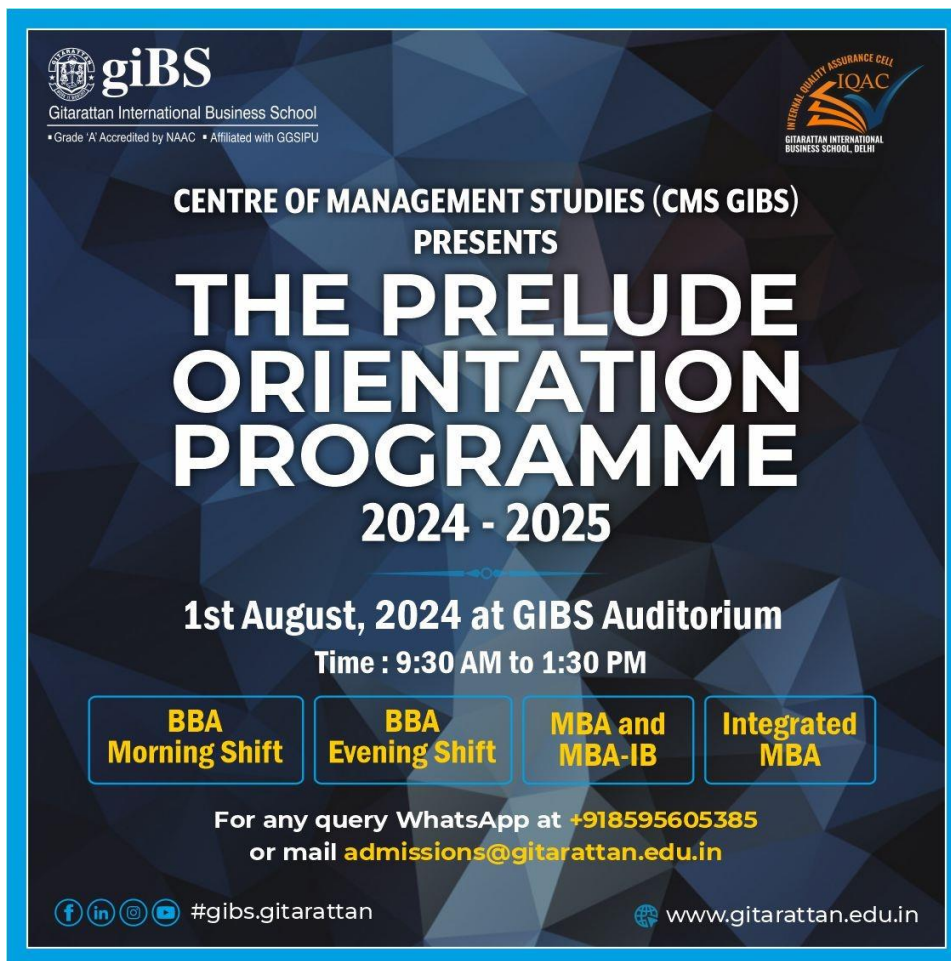

The Centre for Management Studies recently hosted "Prelude," an engaging orientation programme designed to welcome and introduce new students to the institution's culture and values. The event began with a warm welcome by the anchors, who set an enthusiastic tone for the day. This was followed by a traditional lamp-lighting ceremony accompanied by the Saraswati Vandana, invoking blessings for wisdom and success.

The programme featured an insightful guest address by Mr. Arpit Srivastava, Head of Brand @ Cars24 who shared valuable insights on how discipline in life leads to success, emphasizing focus and perseverance as key elements in achieving personal and professional goals. Mr. Aditya Mann, Vice President at First Naukri.com, captivated the audience with his entrepreneurial journey. He candidly discussed his failures and successes, highlighting the importance of resilience and adaptability in overcoming challenges.

Students participated in interactive activities, such as "Guess the Name," which fostered creativity and teamwork. A talent showcase allowed students to display their diverse skills, contributing to a vibrant and inclusive atmosphere. Prof. Dr. Vikas Nath, the Director of the Centre for Management Studies, delivered a comprehensive address outlining the institution's journey and emphasizing the student code of conduct, discipline, and the roles of programme and class coordinators. He also discussed key topics such as placements, anti-ragging measures, and grievance redressal mechanisms.

The programme included feedback and interview session to gather student experiences and suggestions for improvement. The event concluded with the distribution of snacks, offering a relaxed opportunity for students to interact with peers and faculty. Overall, Prelude was a resounding success, with high levels of enthusiasm and participation, setting a strong foundation for the students' journey at the Centre for Management Studies.
