

INDIA'S NEW CRIMINAL LAW: ZERO FIR, E-FIR, ONLINE COMPLAINT, CRIME SCENE VIDEOGRAPHY

27TH AUGUST 2024, TUESDAY

Gitarattan International Business School in collaboration with IQAC cell organized Jurist Day 1 on the topic “India’s New Criminal Law: Zero-FIR, E-FIR, Online Police Complaint, Crime Scene Videography” on 27th August, 2024. The event was graced with the presence of Honorable Guest Dr. B. M. Jyotishi, Advocate, Supreme Court of India. The guest was welcomed by Prof. Dr. Neelam Seam, Associate Professor, GIBS.

The Guest enlightened the students about valuable insights into the legal processes surrounding FIRs, emphasizing their importance in initiating criminal cases. He elaborated on the legal framework governing arrests, discussing the rights of the accused and the police's responsibilities. He also shed light on the complexities of bail, covering various types and factors influencing bail decisions. He offered an overview of pre-trial proceedings, including investigation and charge framing. The session critically assessed the police's role in justice, highlighting the need for a balance between enforcement and respect for legal rights and ethics.

The event ended with a presentation of a memento to the esteemed Guest by Dr. Neelam Seam. The event ended on a successful note.
