

INDIA AND INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS LAW: PROTECTING VULNERABLE GROUPS THROUGH GLOBAL NORMS

24TH NOVEMBER 2025 (MONDAY)

The Centre for Legal Studies (CLS), giBS successfully organized Jurist Day on 24th November 2025 from 10:00 A.M. to 12:00 Noon at the Auditorium, giBS on the theme “India and International Human Rights Law: Protecting Vulnerable Groups through Global Norms” for the students of Integrated BA LL.B. (H) and Integrated BBA LL.B. (H) (7th Semester, all sections). The session was graced by the esteemed resource person, Mr. Anurag Chandravanshi, Chairman, Human Rights Association of India, who has an extensive background in human rights advocacy, legal awareness campaigns, and policy interventions for the protection of marginalized and vulnerable communities. With years of experience in working with national and international human rights bodies, he has played a significant role in promoting access to justice and strengthening human rights mechanisms in India. After a warm welcome and sapling ceremony organized by Ms. Prachi Sharma, Mr. Chandravanshi delivered a highly informative and engaging lecture in which he explained complex concepts of international human rights law in a simplified and practical manner. He shared real-life case studies, field experiences, and landmark judgments, which helped students relate theory with practice. The session became highly interactive as students actively asked questions regarding implementation challenges of international conventions in India, the role of judiciary in human rights protection, career opportunities in human rights law, and practical ways to contribute towards social justice. Mr. Chandravanshi patiently addressed every query, encouraged open dialogue, and motivated the students to become socially responsible legal professionals. The event concluded with a vote of thanks and token of appreciation, leaving a lasting impact on the students and making the session highly enriching and inspiring.

FLYER OF THE EVENT

TYPE OF EVENT	Co-curricular
VENUE	Seminar Room, GIBS
TIME & DURATION	10:00 AM to 12:00 PM
CONDUCTED BY	CLS-GIBS
ORGANISED FOR	BALLB & BBA LLB 7 TH SEMESTER STUDENTS
NAME OF THE COORDINATOR	Ms. Prachi Sharma
ATTENDANCE	102 Students

RESOURCE PERSON	Mr. Anurag Chandravanshi, Chairman, Human Rights Association of India
OBJECTIVES OF THE EVENT	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To familiarize students with the fundamental principles of International Human Rights Law and their relevance to the Indian legal system. 2. To examine the protection of vulnerable groups such as women, children, minorities, refugees, and persons with disabilities under Indian and global legal frameworks. 3. To connect constitutional guarantees with international obligations undertaken by India through conventions and treaties. 4. To inspire students to pursue career paths in human rights law, international law, humanitarian work, and policy-making.
LEARNING OUTCOME	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Students developed a clear understanding of the evolution, scope, and significance of international human rights law and its interrelationship with Indian Legal System. 2. Students were able to identify, interpret, and critically analyze legal protections and remedies available to vulnerable groups under domestic and international human rights frameworks. 3. Students were encouraged to explore career opportunities in human rights law, advocacy, policy-making, and international institutions. 4. Students acquired a broader, multidisciplinary perspective on the relationship between law, society, and justice, enabling them to engage meaningfully with human rights discourse at national and global levels.

SHORT FALL DURING EVENT	None
LINK TO YOUTUBE VIDEO	https://youtu.be/ncb7c_zFmyU

PREPARED & SUBMITTED BY: MS. PRACHI SHARMA, ASSISTANT PROFESSOR, GIBS