ABOUT CENTRE FOR LEGAL STUDIES (CLS)

The Centre for Legal Studies (CLS) at Gitarattan International Business School (GIBS), was established in 2016, with an aim to deliver high-quality legal education that seamlessly integrates core academic theory with practical advocacy skills. Approved by the Bar Council of India (BCI) and affiliated with Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University (GGSIPU), Delhi, CLS is dedicated to preparing aspiring lawyers for leadership across corporate, litigation, and public service domains. The institution offers a comprehensive spectrum of law programs, including the 5-Year Integrated BA LL.B. (Hons.) and BBA LL.B. (Hons.), the 3-Year LL.B. degree, and the LL.M. postgraduate degree featuring specialized tracks in Criminal Justice System, Corporate Law, Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR), and Intellectual Property Rights (IPR).

To foster practical exposure, ethical values, and holistic development beyond the classroom, CLS operates 13 key student-led clubs and societies dedicated to both co-curricular and extracurricular excellence. Among these, Courtroom – The Law Society serves as the primary wing for practical legal training. Complementing this core academic growth, other specialized bodies—such as the Legal Aid Clinic (LAC) for community outreach and legal literacy, and the NSS Unit for social responsibility—work alongside diverse cultural, management, sports, and innovation societies to ensure well-rounded student development.

ABOUT COURT ROOM-THE LAW SOCIETY

The Law Society of CLS, GIBS regulates and conducts moot courts, debates, mediation sessions, youth parliaments, and client counseling exercises in accordance with the Institute's Academic Calendar 2026–2027. The Society also represents the Centre for Legal Studies across prestigious national and international academic platforms.

Key Objectives

- To train and prepare law students to compete in national and international moot court, mediation, debate, youth parliament, and legal skill-based competitions.
- To organize, coordinate, and regulate institutional legal events, including debates, mediation, youth parliaments, client counseling, and internal moot court trials.
- To bridge classroom theory and practical legal training through workshops, simulations, competitions, and professional interactions.
- To foster teamwork, ethics, confidence, and professionalism to prepare students for successful careers in the legal domain.

CLASH OF MINDS (DEBATE)

A Debate is a discussion or structured contest about an issue or a resolution. A formal debate involves two sides: one supporting the resolution and the other opposing it. Such a debate is bound by the rules mentioned in the brochure. Debate may be judged in order to declare a winning side.

A team consists of two members. When the formal debate is finished, time will be given for rebuttal. A debate has been proved to be a great device for engaging students and enables them to voice their valuable views. The objective of this competition is to inculcate a healthy debate culture amongst students and contrive them to defend what they stand for. The Debate Competition aims to provide the students with an opportunity to come ahead, learn, and experience the art of debating.

Courtroom: The Law Society of CLS, GIBS presents its Debate Competition.

- c) The amount paid (registration fees) shall be non-refundable.

CHAPTER II – THE COMPETITION

4. Format and Procedure of the Competition

- a) The competition will be held across a span of 2 days i.e. 10th–11th October 2026.
- b) AIPPM is the only committee that would be in working during Youth Parliament.

c) Portfolio

- Delegates shall mention their portfolio preferences in the registration form. CLS, GIBS holds the authority for allocation of portfolios and delegates shall be notified with the portfolio via official email id.
- Portfolios will be given on the basis of first cum first basis as well as prior experience.
- Once the portfolio is provided the delegate would be provided with a background guide by an email from CLS, GIBS. If the delegate doesn't receive the mail they shall inform the organizing team of CLS, GIBS prior to the competition. The organizing committee shall not be responsible if the information is not provided.
- No request for the change of the portfolio would be entertained.

- d) Only Governmental/Parliamentary/Law Commission Reports/International Reports would be taken as official. Other Newspaper reports, International Reports, NGO findings/Studies, etc. can be brought up for debate but would hold no official value.

e) Rules of Procedure

• Roll Call

The Lok Sabha Speaker will take the attendance before the session starts through roll call and the members have to give their attendance as "Present" on their microphone.

Roll Call will be taken on the member's portfolio before the start of session on both the days and all the members are to take part in the Roll Call.

Note to Delegates: As the session begins in committee all the delegates will be identified by their allotted portfolios and not by their own name. For smooth functioning of committee delegates are hence expected to maintain anonymity.

- Opening Statements

The Opening statement will be presented by the Minister in Charge (MIC) before the House.

After his presentation further statement will be allowed on the floor from the members by the Speaker of the House.

The members will be delivering an opening statement after the presentation of MIC.

The default speakers' time for this shall be 120 seconds and can be extended up to 180 seconds.

After every speech, members are obligated to yield the floor back to the Executive Board/Speaker.

The Executive Board/Speaker will direct the members to submit statements.

The number of statements to be submitted will be decided by the Executive Board/Speaker depending on the time.

The option of raising placards of their respective portfolios would be used by the delegates to speak up.

- Establishing the Sessions

The session will be established by passing an order by the Speaker of the House for public sessions.

- Public Session

In order to discuss various sections of the agenda, a separate time frame is allotted for the members to put their views on the floor of the House.

A public session can be of 120 minutes but the individual speaker's time will be maximum 2 minutes 30 seconds only.

As the public session is open for general visitors and in presence of the media, the members are requested to maintain parliament.

- Zero Hour

Delegates are quite accustomed to seeing members of Parliament asking questions during the Question Hour. That's how Parliament begins its day when it's in session. Apart from the Question Hour, Parliament allocates additional time slot for the members to discuss issues.

Zero Hour – Rules & Regulations for the purpose of this conference

1. Members wishing to raise matters of public importance during the "Zero Hour" need to give notice to the Executive Board before the Zero Hour starts.
2. The notice should clearly state the subject they want to raise.
3. The Executive Board is the final authority that can either reject or accept such request.
4. Minimum 12 and maximum 20 matters will be allowed to be raised during the Zero Hour.
5. Again, it is the Executive Board who decides which subjects are to be discussed and in what order.
6. The total time allocated for Zero Hour would ideally be 2 hours wherein a member gets three minutes to raise the issue.
7. Moreover, a member is allowed to make only one Zero Hour request.

- Question Hour

The Question Hour will be of 2 hours in total where each speaker's timing will be decided by the Speaker/EB.

The members are urged to listen carefully to whatever statements are made by different members throughout the day and send the questions through chits to the Speaker right from the start of session till the Question Hour begins.

The questions can pertain to anything discussed in the short period discussions or something said during the opening statements.

The members should restrict their questions to the agenda at hand.

The discussion will be on the topic placed by the MIC in the opening statement.

f) Points

- Point of Personal Privilege (PP)

A Representative may rise to a Point of Personal Privilege if a matter impairs him/her from participating fully in council activities.

The Executive Board persons shall try to effectively address the reason for impairment.

Personal Privilege may only interrupt a speaker if the Representative speech is inaudible.

Otherwise, the Representative rising on the Point of Personal Privilege must wait till the end of the speech to raise the Point.

The member should raise his/her placard to the EB to take part in Point of Personal Privilege during Question Hour.

Speaker/EB will allot time to each applicant speaker according to the session time available.

- Point of Order

A Representative may rise to a Point of Order if he finds a factual flaw in the speech of the delegate speaker (through message to the EB).

This point may not interrupt the concerned delegate speaker.

The Executive Board will rule on the validity of the point immediately (through chits sent to them by concerned delegates).

A Point of Order ruled dilatory by the Executive Board may not be appealed.

- Point of Information (PI)

A Representative may rise to a Point of Information if he/she wishes to ask a question or clarification to the delegate speaker.

This point may not interrupt a delegate speaker.

This point is only valid at the time of the opening statements.

- Right of Reply (RR)

A Representative whose personal integrity has been impugned by another Delegate's comments may rise to a Right of Reply.

Disagreement with the content of a Delegate's speech is not grounds for a Right of Reply.

The Executive Board will recognize the Right of Reply at his/her discretion as well as decide on how to resolve the motion.

Right to Reply may not interrupt a delegate speaker but should be addressed the moment he/she has finished his/her speech.

The Executive Board shall formulate the rules for Right of Reply (out of order); his/her decision cannot be appealed.

No Representative may call for a Right of Reply on a Right of Reply.

"PLEA TO FOLLOW UP" is the request appealed to EB for the continuation of cross question/cross answer after a reply.

Replies can be either oral or written.

It is to be noted that if delegate needs the chit to get marked he/she may pass the chit via EB.

- Point of Parliamentary Inquiry (PPE)

A Representative may rise to a Point of Parliamentary Inquiry requesting an explanation/repetition from the Executive Board on the Rules of Procedure.

This point may not interrupt a Speaker.

5. Judging Criteria

The Committees of Judges (EB) shall keep in view the following points while assessing the performances of delegates.

S. no	Particulars	Marks
1	Discipline	5
2	Observance of Parliamentary Decorum	5
3	Selection of Questions and Supplementary	5
4	Quality of Answers and Justification	5
5	Delivery of Quality of Speeches a. Content b. Language & Communication	10
6	Characterization of the Portfolio	10
7	General Assessment of the Performance	10
	L = 50

6. Language

Lok Sabha would be a bilingual committee wherein members can speak either Hindi or English. English shall be the official language for the purpose of drafting.

7. Clarifications

The participants may submit queries regarding the Youth Parliament Competition during the prescribed time frame to nyp@gitarattan.edu.in mail ID only. The clarifications will not be accepted after the given time. The last date to seek clarifications is 4th October 2026, and the release of such clarifications would be on 6th October 2026 via the official email ID nyp@gitarattan.edu.in in a document form.

8. Dress Code

- The dress code for the Competition shall be business formals or in accordance with the portfolio for both male and female participants.
- The dress code shall be business formals for the Inaugural and Valedictory Ceremony.

9. Winners

- Winners will be awarded a Cash Prize and a Certificate of Merit, and every participant shall be awarded a Certificate of Participation.

CHAPTER III – CODE OF CONDUCT

10. Code of Conduct Applicable to Participants

- All the participants are bound to follow the code of conduct and the rules laid down by the Organizing Committee.

- b) Any behaviour of indiscipline with the Judges, Organizing Committee, any other staff member or student volunteer shall be dealt with strictly and may lead to immediate disqualification from the Competition without scope of appeal.
- c) Any kind of nuisance, vulgar language, and non-parliamentary language would directly lead to disqualification.
- d) Any attempt to approach the framer(s) of the problem(s) or the panel of Judges of the Competition, prior to the Competition shall lead to immediate disqualification from the Competition without scope of appeal.
- e) All or any grievances are to be presented only to the Grievance Committee of the Competition, and the decision of the Grievance Committee shall be final and binding on the participants.

11. Anonymity of Participants

- a) The delegate must represent themselves with their respective portfolio names and not by their own names.
- b) No participant shall reveal their identity in any form during the Competition.
- c) Any violation of the provisions of this rule shall attract severe penalty or disqualification as determined by the Organizing Committee. The decision of the Organizing Committee in this regard shall be final and binding without scope of appeal.

CHAPTER IV – MISCELLANEOUS

- a) The Organizing Committee shall have power to amend, modify or revoke the provisions of these rules, either in part or in whole, subject to the feasibility, transparency and smooth functioning of the Competition.
- b) Any such amendment or modification shall come into force upon the notification of such amendment or modification, as the case may be. Any such amendment or modification shall be deemed to be part of these rules.
- c) Use of mobile or other electronic instruments during the rounds is strictly prohibited, and any candidate found engaging in such activities shall be immediately disqualified. No audio or videotaping of any round is permitted.
- d) The Organizing Committee shall have sole discretion to assess penalties or to disqualify teams for any failure in abiding by any of the foregoing Rules.
- e) The decision of the Judges and the Institution on any issue arising during the Competition shall be final and binding.
- f) In case of any queries, mail us at nyp@gitarattan.edu.in.

CLIENT CONNECT (CLIENT COUNSELING)

Client Counselling Competition

The Client Counseling Competition promotes greater knowledge and interest among law students in the preventative law and counseling functions of law practice. It also encourages students to develop interviewing, planning, and analytical skills in the lawyer-client relationship in the law office. Interviewing and advising are a significant part of most lawyers' work. The Competition provides an opportunity for a valuable educational and cultural interchange between students, law teachers, and legal practitioners.

Courtroom: The Law Society of CLS, GIBS presents its Client Counselling.

- g. Any failure or non-adherence with the aforementioned procedure may be treated as withdrawal from the competition, and no claim of whatsoever nature shall be entertained thereafter.

3. Registration Procedure

- a. The registration fee for the competition is Rs. 1,800/- per team.
- b. Each team shall register themselves through the registration form via the link provided.
- c. The amount paid (registration fees) shall be non-refundable.

CHAPTER II – THE COMPETITION

4. Format and Structure of the Competition

- 1. Problems will be given on the spot, whereas the area of law will be revealed 2 weeks prior to the competition via mail.
- 2. The Competition shall consist of the following stages:
Preliminary Round → Quarter-Finals → Semi-Finals → Final Round
- 3. The Organising Committee shall announce the teams qualifying for each subsequent round after evaluation of the preceding round.
- 4. The competition simulates a law office consultation in which two participants (Counsel 1 and 2) deal with a client. The participants are given a brief written memorandum that identifies the client's problem prior to interviews. The participant team conducts an interview with a dummy client, and the judge evaluates the performance. The topic of client counselling shall be provided on the spot.
- 5. During the counseling period, students are expected to elicit the relevant information from the client, explore with the client his or her preferred outcome, outline the nature of the problem, and suggest to the client to resolve the problem.
- 6. The participants will be evaluated by a panel of judges considering the specific criteria based on listening to clients, questioning, planning, and analytical skills of a lawyer.
- 7. During post-counseling and consultation, judges can ask questions to the competitor for further clarification.

8. Team members are entirely free to decide the work distribution, but both competitors must consult with the client as a team. It will be the full discretion of the Organizing Committee to select and allot the clients.

5. Composition of Team

- a. One team shall comprise two participants only (Counsel 1 and Counsel 2).
- b. In order to ensure wider participation, not more than one team from any particular institution shall be permitted to participate in the competition.
- c. If two teams of the same institution apply, the first registered team will be selected for participation.

6. Language

- a. The official and only language of the Competition shall be English.

7. Structure of the Competition

8. Preliminary Round

1. All registered teams shall participate in the Preliminary Round.
2. Each team shall receive 25 minutes.
3. The time shall be divided as follows:

Component	Time
Client Consultation Period	15 minutes
Post-Consultation / Judges' Questioning	10 minutes
Total	25 minutes

4. During the consultation, the team shall:
 - Establish a professional relationship;
 - Obtain relevant facts;
 - Identify the client's concerns;
 - Clarify the client's objectives;
 - Analyse the legal problem;
 - Discuss possible courses of action; and
 - Provide appropriate legal advice.
5. Judges may ask questions during the post-consultation period.

Panel Arrangement

Since a maximum of 22 teams may participate and each team requires 25 minutes, the Organising Committee may operate multiple counselling panels simultaneously to ensure timely completion of the Preliminary Round.

9. Quarter-Finals

1. The Top 8 teams from the Preliminary Round shall qualify for the Quarter-Finals.
2. The Quarter-Final shall consist of two parallel counselling panels, with four teams appearing before each panel.
3. Each team shall receive 20 minutes:
 - 12 minutes – Client Consultation
 - 8 minutes – Post-Consultation/Judges' Questioning
4. The problem shall be provided on the spot.
5. The Top 4 teams shall qualify for the Semi-Finals.

10. Semi-Finals

1. The Top 4 teams from the Quarter-Finals shall qualify for the Semi-Finals.
2. Each team shall receive 30 minutes:
 - 20 minutes – Client Consultation
 - 10 minutes – Post-Consultation/Judges' Questioning
3. The problem shall be provided on the spot.
4. The Top 2 teams shall qualify for the Final Round.

11. Final Round

1. The Top 2 teams shall compete in the Final Round.
2. Each team shall receive a maximum of 40 minutes:
 - 25 minutes – Client Consultation
 - 15 minutes – Post-Consultation/Judges' Questioning
3. The Final Round shall be evaluated by the Final Round Judges.
4. The team securing the highest aggregate score shall be declared the Best Team.
5. The second-highest scoring team shall be declared the Runner-Up Team.

12. CLIENT CONSULTATION PERIOD (Interview Period)

- In the client consultation period, the participants as lawyers are expected to elicit the relevant information, outline the problem, and propose a solution or other means of resolving the problem.
- During the consultation and post-consultation, the teams may use books, notes, and other materials.

13. POST CONSULTATION PERIOD (Post Interview Period)

- The remaining time from the total time as specified above will be for the Post Consultation Period and would be devoted to post-consultation among the participants/lawyers and includes Judges' question-answer period.

Judgment Criteria	Marks Allotted
Establishing an effective professional relationship	05
Obtaining information	10
Legal analysis and giving advice	15
Effectively concluding the interview	05
Teamwork	05
Client Interaction and Participation	05
Post interview reflection period	05

Note: Evaluation done by the Judges of each round shall be final and binding on all the teams.

In case of a tie, the scores shall be decided on the basis of the team scoring more points in the criteria of Legal Analysis and Giving Advice and Teamwork. In case of individual counsel for the Best Counsel Award, it shall be decided on the basis of the counsel scoring more marks in the criteria of Legal Analysis and Giving Advice and Establishing an Effective Professional Relationship. The Best Client Award can then be determined primarily on the basis of the Client Interaction and Participation parameter.

14. Code of Conduct Applicable for Participants

1. The official language of the competition shall be English. All written or oral submissions must be undertaken in English.
2. All the participants must wear black pants and a white shirt formal dress for the entire duration of the competition. Girls are allowed to wear white kurta/black salwar. Use of advocate's gowns, bands, and robes is strictly prohibited.
3. No extra time will be allotted in any round without the permission of the Judge. If any participant crosses the time limit, a warning will be issued by the courtroom coordinator.

15. Grounds for Disqualification

Misconduct, whether behavioral or otherwise, is not allowed, and if indulged in shall result in disqualification of the team. Misconduct shall include:

1. Disclosure of identity to other participants or judges during the competition. The participants should use the Team Codes provided.
2. Any attempt by participants to obtain the client counselling topic before notification.
3. Any attempt by participant(s) to speak about controversial matters such as religion, caste, race, gender, foul language, or anti-national rhetoric before or during the competition.
4. Any discussion with client(s) before the competition.
5. Cheating or using unfair means.
6. Intimidation in any form.

CHAPTER III – MISCELLANEOUS

1. To preserve anonymity, each team will be identified by a Team Code, which will be assigned to each team during the registration process. Disclosing the name of the participating college to the judges will result in disqualification.
2. The decision of the Judges shall be final regarding the outcome of the Rounds.
3. The Organizing Committee reserves the right to take any action against unethical, wrongful, or unprofessional conduct.
4. Scouting is not allowed under any circumstances and may lead to disqualification.
5. If there is any situation not covered by the Rules, the decision of the Organizers shall be final and binding.
6. The Organizing Committee reserves the right to amend the rules. However, due notice shall be provided to all participating teams.
7. The participants are always required to comply with the rules formulated by the Organizing Committee during the competition. In case of any non-compliance with the rules of the competition, a penalty may be imposed by deduction of marks, and the teams may also be disqualified after they have been warned once.
8. The clients for the competition will be provided internally by the Organizing Committee.
