The NSS Unit of Gitarattan International Business School (GIBS) successfully organized an AWARENESS SESSION on WOMEN'S EMPOWERMENT in collaboration with the LEGAL AID CLINIC (Centre for Legal Studies, GIBS) on 22nd September 2026.

As part of our social responsibility and women awareness initiative, the session on "Women Empowerment and Legal Literacy" was organized. The session was organized for the residents of Ekta village to promote women development, awareness, education, and meaningful engagement with local residents. The session aimed to equip community members with essential knowledge on women's rights, education, safety, and pathways toward financial independence of Women. Through active awareness discussions, the campaign sought to spread the message of equality, self-reliance, and personal and professional empowerment of Women.

The session was organized on 22nd September 2026 and enabled participants to understand legal protections, statutory rights, and opportunities for personal and professional growth. The session allowed community members to engage directly with the topics, ask questions, and learnt practical strategies to navigate safety challenges and pursue independent career or educational goals.

The volunteers enthusiastically participated in driving the initiative, making it a meaningful step toward creating greater social awareness and community participation. The activities strengthened their sense of social responsibility and encouraged local residents to support women's rights and self-reliance. Overall, the event reinforced the importance of collective efforts in promoting legal literacy, ensuring safety, fostering financial independence, and building an inclusive, empowered, and conscious community.

The NSS Unit remains committed to organizing such socially impactful activities and encourages continued community participation in future initiatives
