giBS
Gitarattan International Business School
Grade 'A' Accredited by NAAC

LEGAL LITERACY AGAINST HUMAN TRAFFICKING
23rd OCTOBER 2026 (FRIDAY)
AWARENESS, PREVENTION AND ACCESS TO JUSTICE

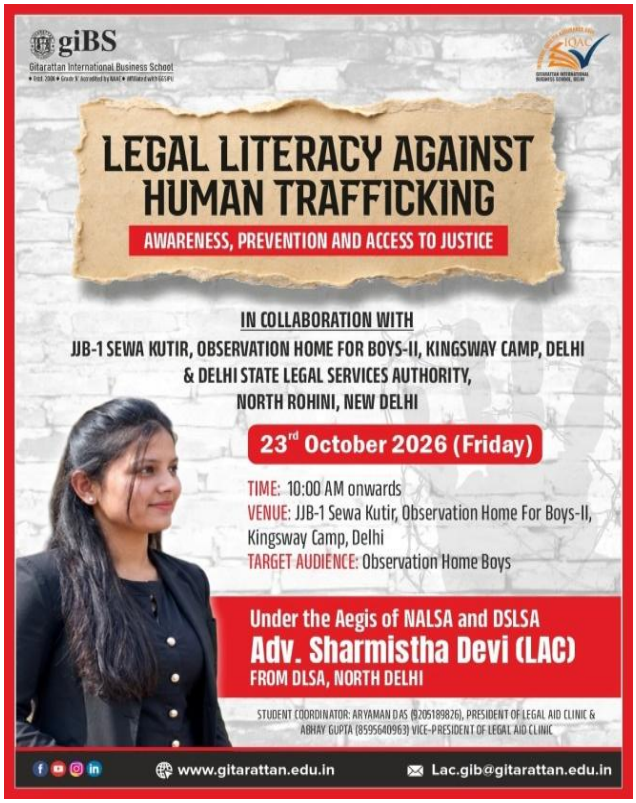

An interactive legal literacy and awareness session titled "Legal Literacy Against Human Trafficking: Awareness, Prevention and Access to Justice" was organized by the Legal Aid Clinic (LAC) of giBS on 23rd October 2026 (Friday) at JJB-1 Sewa Kutir, Observation Home for Boys-II, Kingsway Camp, Delhi. Held in collaboration with the Observation Home and the Delhi State Legal Services Authority, North Rohini, under the aegis of NALSA and DSLSA, the session was designed for the juveniles of the Observation Home, with the aim of building awareness about human trafficking, its prevention, and the avenues of access to justice available to them. Around 50 juveniles were present.

The session commenced at 11:00 AM onwards. The resource person, Adv. Sharmistha Devi (LAC) from DLSA, North Delhi, spoke on Legal Literacy against Human Trafficking, explaining in simple language what human trafficking is and how it takes place, namely the recruitment, transportation and exploitation of persons through force, deception or false promises of work, education, a better life or marriage. She also discussed the causes and the roots behind human trafficking, such as poverty, lack of education and awareness, unemployment, unsupportive family circumstances, migration, and the vulnerability of young person's to being lured by traffickers. The session was kept interactive, and the juveniles were encouraged to ask questions and share their understanding. The importance of staying alert, avoiding unsafe offers and seeking help early, and of using free legal aid and justice mechanisms available through NALSA and the Legal Services Authorities, was emphasized.

The resource person was accompanied by her intern, Ms. Khushi. The Legal Aid Clinic, giBS was represented by Dr. Sonia Rajoria (Coordinator) and Ms. Muskan Arya (Co-Coordinator), who were present. As mobile phones are not allowed inside the Juvenile Jail, only the Government Welfare Officer was permitted to take a few photographs; videos were not allowed, and the juveniles' identity cannot be disclosed.

giBS
Gitarattan International Business School
Grade 'A' Accredited by NAAC

FLYER OF THE EVENT

TYPEOFEVENT	Legal literacy and awareness session (outreach)
VENUE	JJB-1 Sewa Kutir, Observation Home for Boys-II, Kingsway Camp, Delhi
TIME&DURATION	11:00 AM onwards
CONDUCTEDBY	Legal Aid Clinic (LAC), giBS, in collaboration with JJB-1 Sewa Kutir and Delhi State Legal Services Authority (DSLSA), North Rohini, New Delhi
ORGANISED FOR	Observation Home boys-II
NAME OF THE COORDINATOR	Dr. Sonia Rajoria
ATTENDANCE	Around 50 juveniles were present

giBS
Gitarattan International Business School
Grade 'A' Accredited by NAAC

RESOURCE PERSON	Name: Adv. Sharmistha Devi (LAC), DLSA, North Delhi Communication Address: DLSA, North Delhi (under the aegis of NALSA and DSLSA)
OBJECTIVES OF THE EVENT	1. Sensitize the boys of the Observation Home to the issue of human trafficking and the risks it poses to children and young persons. 2. Promote prevention by helping participants understand the causes and roots of trafficking and recognize vulnerable situations and unsafe circumstances that can lead to it. 3. Enhance access to justice by informing participants about their legal rights and the free legal services available through NALSA and DSLSA/DLSA. 4. Strengthen collaboration between the Legal Aid Clinic, giBS, JJB-1 Sewa Kutir and the Delhi State Legal Services Authority in legal literacy outreach.
LEARNINGOUTCOME	1. Participants gained a better understanding of what human trafficking is, how it happens, its root causes, and why awareness and prevention are important. 2. Participants were sensitized to situations of vulnerability and to the importance of seeking help and guidance at an early stage. 3. Participants learned about the legal aid and access-to-justice mechanisms available through NALSA, DSLSA and DLSA. 4. The session strengthened the partnership between giBS Legal Aid Clinic and the Observation Home in promoting legal literacy among children and young persons.
SHORTFALL DURING EVENT	NA
LINK TO YOUTUBE VIDEO	NA (Video recording is not allowed inside the Juvenile Jail.)